ABOUT JAISALMER

In the middle of the Thar Desert, in the western Indian state of Rajasthan, sits the old commerce hub and princely state of Jaisalmer.

It's known as the "Golden City," and it stands out for its yellow sandstone construction.

Jaisalmer Fort, a vast hilltop fortification supported by 99 bastions, commands the skyline.

The Hill Fort of Jaisalmer is what "Jaisalmer" refers to. Jaisalmer is sometimes referred to as the "Golden City of India" because the yellow sand and yellow sandstone that are utilized in every building there give the city and its surroundings a yellowish-golden tint. The majestic Maharaja's Palace and elaborately carved Jain temples are hidden behind its imposing walls Tourists flock to the Rajasthani city of Jaisalmer for its extensive desert sand dunes. Sam Sand Dunes is where Jaisalmer's well-known Desert Safaris take place.

A Jeep transports you to a location near the Sam Sand Dunes, from which a 90-minute camel ride begins.
